SOUTH WINDSOR
The Hartford Courant (1887-1922); Oct 23, 1913; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Hartford Courant
pg. 18

SOUTH WINDSOR.

Albert Ahern and David Ahern, M. J. Troy and John Daly have returned from Worcester where they attended a reception given in honor of Jack Barry, the Philadelphia short stop.

Mrs. Frank Bidwell is visiting relatives in Collinsville.

Mrs. Haynes who has been the guest of Mrs. Cornelius Driscoll the past few days has returned to her home.

E. W. Burnham is visiting his daughter Mrs. Kruz of South Hadley, Mass.

Revival services are being held at the Wapping Methodist Church this week at which chalk talks are being given by the evangelist, Rev. A. M. Walker of Vermont.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.